To the Honorable Board of Mayor and Aldermen:

Your Committee, to whom was referred the petition of [illegible] and H. A. AMENDMENTS CITY CHARTER.

Chairman Swayne submitted the following report, which was received and ordered published:

REPORT.

Gentlemen of the Board of Aldermen of the city of Memphis:

Pursuant to your instructions I have visited the State Capital in order to obtain from the General Assembly, now in session, such legislation as you deemed necessary for the interest of the city.

I take pleasure in saying to you, that, as your agent and petitioner, I was received and treated respectfully and courteously and kindly by all with whom I was thrown in contact, and especially so by our own members and immediate representatives in the Senate and House; and that my business was by them [illegible] properly and duly considered.

Some prejudice exists there, it is true, unhappily for us, because of extreme personal [illegible] and invective, emanating from amongst us here, and affecting, to a greater or less extent, all our interests in the Legislature, and because also, but in a less degree, of the factious circumstance, that much legislation is required for the commercial and other interests of this city, in comparison with that needed for other localities in the State; but this prejudice, on this latter ground, yields to reason, when it appears that our large population and commerce and constant growth with the changing events and conditions incident thereto, require it, and so make it not more, comparatively, than is asked for or required by other localities.

Our members, I am pleased to say, are fully alive to all our local interests, and devote themselves actively and earnestly, to all their duties, and fairly and candidly consider all measures, not strictly political, independently of party bias. And it gives me pleasure, also, to state that, in regard to the matters you charged me with, I had the valuable and cordial co-operation of several of our citizens, then at Nashville, among them Mr. Merriman and Judge Lewis.

Whilst finding it impracticable to obtain all the legislation you desired, or in form as you desired it, yet the most of it, and perhaps enough, will no doubt be adopted as law, and in such shape as will be acceptable to you, and adequate to our necessities, and as early as the forms of legislation will allow. To this end, and for this legislation, I was careful to have the concurring judgment and the approval of our own members first, and then, of others exercising influence or control over the matter.

The proposition to unite the collection of State, county and city taxes in one person, was found objectionable, and therefore waived, as was also any separate legislation for the city, providing penalties, etc., as desired by you; but, instead thereof, by a legislative provision, we may adopt the provisions made, or to be made, for the collection of state or county taxes, and which you will perhaps find to be sufficient for the purposes in view. And these, I add, are embodied in the Revenue bill, which, I have the pleasure to say, passed the House the day before I left Nashville, and will, doubtless, soon become a law. [I have no allusion, in these remarks, to any of the burdens of taxation on our people already too great, but to the collection of the revenue from delinquents, and unpaid, would relieve the city from the embarrassment under which we have found her.]

To meet the other objects devised by you, I prepared a bill and obtained for it, in form and substance, the approval of our members and others, (and to which I have seen or heard no objection among any of our people, or in the Legislature, and left the same in the hands and care of Senator Smith, who, together with all our members, will see to its passage.

Upon the faithful attention and effectiveness of our immediate members in the Legislature I repose entire confidence for the accomplishment of our reasonable legislation for the interest and welfare of our goodly city.

The Board may expect something from me about the suggestion (it can hardly be called more than that) to set aside the city government, or to turn over the same to Commissioners, out of the hands to which the people so lately, by the forms of law, committed it, and whose management, thus far, is approved with singular unanimity.

The project was, I am satisfied, in no sense a political one; and, whether or not prompted by motives of individual advancement and emolument, I am happy to add, that neither it nor any accompanying appliances, as presented at Nashville, received any favor from any of our members in the Legislature, or, so far as I know, from any others there.

My attention was called to the matter by communications from his Honor, the acting Mayor, and the City Attorney, R. J. Morgan, Esq., but was already given, as a duty, so soon as it was discovered, which was on the same day of my arrival in Nashville; and I was surprised to find that a bill, for this object, of which I and you were wholly unconscious, at Memphis, (so secretly was it kept from the public and the public authorities,) had actually gone up by the same train and route.

Without delay I proceeded to call on our immediate members of the Senate and House, to learn with what favor it was or would be entertained by them, regarding it as a matter of public interest and character, about which they would frankly state their impressions. They did, frankly, freely, candidly and promptly describe the project, as discussed to them, and express their disapproval of it, coming as and in the form it did in neither body of the General Assembly was it introduced.

The subject also appeared in the papers of Nashville, and, to prevent undue effect in others through that channel, I also looked after it in that direction, as well for the interests of the city, as to correct improper impressions made of some of her best friends, whose names were brought into connection with the untoward scheme.

All which is respectfully submitted.
J. T. SWAYNE.

PETITIONS.

By Alderman Powers:

MEMPHIS, TENNESSEE, February 3, 1868.

To the Honorable Board of Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Memphis:

The undersigned, your petitioner, respectfully represents that, during his absence the City Tax Collector presented to Colonel R. D. Baugh, who was then associated with him in business, a bill for city tax on his cotton shed in the Navy Yard, for the year ending July 1st, 1866, amounting to $508, which said Baugh paid.

Your petitioner applied to the Hon. W. O. Lofland, Mayor at the time, to have the same refunded to him, and to be applied as a credit on his account for rent for said shed, on the ground that as no other lessee had been required to pay tax, he should not be made to do so, and the amount was so ordered by Mr. Lofland, but, before the settlement was made, the papers were all destroyed by the fire which consumed the property on the 21st of July last.

If it be right to place your petitioner on a common footing with other lessees, your petitioner does not doubt you will do so, particularly if the circumstance is recalled that he has nearly been ruined by the destruction of the property in question, by fire. All of which is respectfully submitted.
J. R. CHRISTIAN.

R. D. BAUGH.

Referred to the Committee on Claims.

By Alderman Johnson:

To the Honorable Board of Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Memphis:

Your petitioner would respectfully show that, at the request of R. D. Baugh, Esq., City Controller, upon his inauguration into office, he assisted him in executing the duties of his office, for which it was reasonable to suppose the Board would make an allowance, inasmuch as a large force had been allowed his predecessor, and, in his judgment, one assistant was necessary to promptly serve the interests of the city.

Your petitioner was thus employed for twenty days, from the 15th of January to the 4th of February, inclusive, two-thirds of one month, for which he asks, as a fair compensation, an allowance at the rate of $150 per month; and your petitioner will ever pray, etc.

To the Honorable Mayor and Board of Aldermen of the City of Memphis:

SIRS: The undersigned would respectfully recommend to the consideration of your Honors the claims of William Dowd, for a long time a citizen of Memphis; a young man the most deserving and exemplary, and at the same time the most needy and unfortunate. Having accidentally lost his leg without any fault of his own, while in the employ of the Memphis and Ohio Railroad, he is now unable to obtain anything to do by which he can support himself. He humbly petitions your Honorable Board to grant him a gratuitous license to vend and peddle fruit &c. in and about the wharves and railroad depots of the city. If granted him (which we respectfully recommend) he may be enabled thereby to support himself, and the public may be spared the necessity and burden of his maintenance, which else it must bear.

Our indebtedness amounts to the sum of thirty two hundred and sixty eight 85-100 ($3,268 85) dollars, the greater portion of it on pay rolls of the employes, none of whom have received any pay since December 15th, 1867. By the same:

To the Honorable Board of Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Memphis:

Gentlemen—Your petitioners would respectfully represent that they are property owners on Shelby street, in the city of Memphis; that some time in the month of July, A.D. 1867, there was a contract made by your honorable body with Forrest, Montgomery & Co., to pave Shelby street with Nicolson pavement; that according to the terms of this contract, this work was to have been completed "on or before the first day of January, 1868, Sundays, holidays, and such other days on which prosecution of the whole of the work, in accordance with the provisions of this agreement, is, in consequence of the weather necessarily suspended to be excepted." And your petitioners would further represent that the above named firm did, some time in the month of September or October, 1867, sell and assign the aforesaid contracts to Taylor, McBean & Baldwin, with the knowledge and consent of your honorable body; that the last named firm did, some time in the month of December, 1867, sell and assign this contract to one Langdon, or other parties to your petitioners unknown, and we would further represent that the time has elapsed in which this street was to have been paved, and that no part of the work has been done; and we have good and sufficient reason to believe that it is not the intention of the contractors or their assignees to commence this work for some time to come; and this street is in great need of being paved immediately, and in consideration of the above facts, and to accomplish this end, we pray your honorable body to cancel and annul the aforesaid contract, made with Forrest, Montgomery & Co.; also, all subsequent modification of the same; and that we be allowed to contract with other parties to do this work on our own account, who will complete the same on or before the first day of August, 1868.

And we would further represent, that we are informed, and fully believe the price to be paid for this paving under the contract made with Forrest, Montgomery & Co. is more than it is worth; that we can procure a good and substantial Nicolson pavement for a much less price.

We hope your honorable body will duly consider this matter, as it is of vital importance to us, who are more directly interested, and this community at large; and your petitioners, as in duty bound, will ever pray, etc.

By Alderman Moffit:

To the Honorable Board of Mayor and Aldermen:

Gentlemen—In accordance with the provisions of the charter incorporating Memphis City Schools, the Board of School Visitors of the Memphis City Schools, did, at the time specified by law, viz: In June last, make to your Honorable Body an approximate estimate of the expense for the scholastic year 1867-8. Such estimate was one hundred and ten thousand dollars, ($110,000.)

The above named sum, in the opinion of the Finance Committee, was as little as the wants of the City Schools demanded. The extension of the city limits of the city necessitates a heavy expense unsuspected at the time the estimate was made. To meet such increased expense, the Board of School would ask for ten thousand dollars in addition to the former estimate, making the aggregate estimate one hundred and twenty thousand dollars, ($120,000.)

Resolved, That the Mayor be authorized to allow parties having balances in their favor on the Controller's books, for labor or goods furnished the city, to use such balances when bills fully satisfied is for the purpose of paying taxes.

Adopted.

By Alderman Passmore:

Hon. Board of Mayor and Aldermen of the city of Memphis:

Your petitioner respectfully represents that by reference to your records, book 12, page 130, you will find the report of the jury to assess the damages for the right of way for Exchange street east from Polk street, which said report was approved by the Board, allowing thirteen hundred dollars for the right of way through the Sullivan lot, which was then in litigation, but has since been decided by the Chancery Court decreeing and vesting the title to said lot in your petitioner.

Your petitioner further states that she has never received any pay for the same, nor has any other person for her received it.

She asks your Honorable Board to make some arrangements to pay the same, as she is anxious to settle her taxes due the city on the lot. And as the city has had the use of the street for nearly two years, she asks that you allow her interest on the same till paid.

Hoping that you will oblige her by attending to this, she will ever pray, etc.

Resolved, That the Wharfmaster enforce the resolution passed by this Board, respecting the removal of wharfboats.

Referred to Wharf Committee.

By the same:

Be it ordained, etc:

Section 1. That any packet company, or any person or persons shall have the right to keep moored at the landing in this city, at such point as may be designated by the Board of Mayor and Aldermen, a wharfboat for the purpose of facilitating public business and the protection of freights, provided the same shall not be used in any way for the sale of merchandise, or as a commission house, or used for any business where commission or hire is charged, either to individuals or steamboats, but shall be exclusively used by said company or persons for their own business of transportation and the receiving and discharging of freight.

Sec. 2. Said parties shall pay for said privilege such wharfage as shall be fixed by law, to be collected as other wharfage. This privilege shall extend only from week to week, and may be withdrawn at any time by the Board of Mayor and Aldermen.

Sec. 3. All wharfboats laying at the landing in violation of this ordinance, shall be removed, and upon failure to so remove, the owner or owners shall be fined for each day in violation of said ordinance, not more than fifty or less than ten dollars.

Tabled.

Thereupon the Board adjourned.

DEMOCRATIC MEETING IN CRITTENDEN COUNTY, ARK.

They Decide Against the Action of the Convention.

The Democracy of Crittenden county, Arkansas, met at the Courthouse on Saturday, the 29th of February, for the purpose of considering the new Constitution. The meeting was organized by calling J. F. Earle to the chair, and appointing A. H. Ferguson Secretary. A Committee on Resolutions was appointed. The meeting was addressed in stirring speeches by Colonel Syles, Judge Brown, and Thomas L. Moornan, Esq., much to the satisfaction of all present.

The following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, The Constitution adopted by the Radical Convention of the State of Arkansas, and now submitted to the people of the State for ratification, disfranchises many of our best citizens and disqualifies them as jurors; denies them the privilege of enlisting in the militia of the State, that the militia force to be organized thereunder may be used for the oppression of such class of our citizens; and

Whereas, Such Constitution enforces the permanent civil and political equality of all classes, and the logical effect thereof will be to produce the social equality of all classes; and

Whereas, Said Constitution is in many other respects unfair, unjust and oppressive; therefore be it

Resolved, That it is the imperative duty of all the citizens of the State of Arkansas to oppose the adoption of said Constitution, and that we positively refuse it and pledge ourselves to use the utmost effort to procure its rejection.

Resolved, That it is the duty of all citizens who are allowed the privilege, to go to the polls held under military authority and to vote "against Convention."

Resolved, That no citizen should, either as a candidate for office or as a voter, or in any other manner recognize the election ordered by the Convention.

Resolved, That we will vote against the Convention, and for nothing else.

On motion it was ordered that the Memphis AVALANCHE and Appeal and Little Rock Gazette be furnished with a copy of proceedings.
J. F. EARLE, Chairman.
A. H. FERGUSON, Secretary.

Delegates to the Radical pow-wow, at Raleigh, were charged only half fare on the railroads. Some of them never did pay more than half fare.

INTELLIGENCE DEPARTMENT.
THE Ladies of the Aid Society have connected with their rooms a duly authorized Intelligence Department, where any persons desiring "help" in any capacity can procure it by paying the sum of $1. Other offices of similar character charge $5 for the same service. Owing to the great scarcity of money, there is comparatively but little sewing passing through the rooms. Will not the young gentlemen of the city who have work of this kind send it to the Depot, in Stillman Block, where it will be done in good manner and at reasonable rates. By doing this they will assist the worthy females in our midst who depend on their needle for subsistence. The Ladies solicit sewing from all who have it to give out. Remember, the full price paid for the work goes to the employee, the society been supported by its membership.

EDITORIAL

THE PEN IS MIGHTIER THAN THE SWORD.

THURSDAY, : : : : : MARCH 5, 1868

WHO is entitled to vote? is now an important question. Some time since a prominent lawyer of this city published an able article in one of the city papers, asking this pertinent question. There was but little interest then felt in the elections which are now at hand, and the subject did not attract that attention which its importance demanded, and we propose to renew it. We quote from the second article of the Constitution of Tennessee:

> Section 1. The powers of the Government shall be divided into three distinct departments: The Legislative, Executive, and Judicial.
>
> Sec. 2. No person or persons belonging to one of these departments shall exercise any of the powers belonging to either of the others except in cases herein directed or permitted.
>
> Sec. 3. The Legislative authority of the State shall be vested in a General Assembly.
>
> Article 3, Sec. 1. The Supreme Executive power of the State shall be vested in a Governor.
> Article 6, Sec. 1. The Judicial power of the State shall be vested in one Supreme Court, and such Inferior Courts as the Legislature shall from time to time ordain and establish, and in the Judges thereof.

Now, supposing BROWNLOW to be constitutionally Governor of the State, and the body of men now in session at Nashville calling itself a Legislature, to be constitutionally organized as such, and duly clothed with the legislative authority of the State, how stands the case? The Legislature, in pursuance of an authority which we may, for purposes of the argument, admit to be legitimate, prescribes the qualifications of voters, and under its authority a tribunal is erected and an officer appointed, to give all citizens a chance to prove themselves qualified to vote, and to receive the necessary evidence of that right in a certificate of registration. The law is obeyed; the Court of Registration is opened; citizens appear, and there claim the right of suffrage; are heard and adjudged by the officer appointed to judge and determine. This is done; the applicant is adjudged by the Court of Registration to be a qualified voter, and the judgment of the Court is evidenced by the certificate of that officer. There is not a ... the Legislative and Executive departments ... BROWNLOW has just as much right by proclamation to set aside the decree of Chancellor FRITH, and annul the prisoner's right to his property, declared by the Chancellor's decree as his, as he has to take the same means to take away the right of suffrage adjudged to the citizen by a court created for that purpose. The provisions of the act of the Legislature assuming to give him that power, is a nullity, because the Legislature had no judicial authority to confer, and its act is just as silly as would be the act of the Governor attempting by proclamation to confer the same upon the Legislature. One Judge in West Tennessee has already held such proclamation to be void, and there is not an honest judge in the State but will hold the same way, unless he is a fool. Now, wrongfully to withhold this right from a citizen, either by a judge of an election or by any one else, is made a misdemeanor, punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both, besides being liable to a private suit for damages. We would, therefore, advise all citizens who hold registration papers obtained from Mr. DAVIS, to go to the polls and offer their ballot, and if refused require the judges to write on the back of it the name of the party offering to vote, and the word "rejected." Then let all such bring their action against the judges refusing the ballot, and also go before the grand jury of the Circuit Court and demand indictments. Upon conviction, BROWNLOW's pardon will not relieve them. He may remit the fine but cannot remit the cost including the Attorney General's fee. This alone will make each case cost the judges, refusing the vote, between five dollars and ten dollars, and two thousand such cases will teach the parties a lesson that they won't soon forget. And the lawyer already alluded to, whose name has been left with us, authorises us to state that he offers his name without fee or reward for the prosecution of all such cases. Let every man holding a certificate propose to vote, and if refused, appeal to the bar for the damages he will most certainly secure.

WE could fill our paper with exposures of the corruption of the County Commissioners. It was an evil hour that fastened these creatures upon the backs of the tax-paying people. They will go out of office with the stain of discredit, disgrace and dishonor upon their names. They have not only plundered the county treasury, and squandered the peoples' money, but they have been bribed, hired with filthy lucre to cast votes which they knew was a fraud and swindle. Sometime since five hundred dollars was paid for an old, spavined, broken-winded horse, and a rickety, old cart. We are told that the horse and cart are not worth over three hundred dollars at the highest figures, and what is more, a man is paid seventy-five dollars to feed the horse which is kept by LEWIS, one of the Commissioners, who uses this county property every day for his own purposes. LEWIS can often be seen propped up in this cart dashing along like a lord in his chariot. This impudent poacher upon the rights and liberties of a noble people ought to be pelted with sticks and stones, and the street scavenger's brooms, as he whizzes by the honest, hard-working taxpayer. Thus the public moneys are wasted upon profligate scalawags. Thus corruption runs riot. Are imbecils, knaves and carpet-bag thieves always to plunder? Will the people always permit rogues to trample upon their liberties and steal from their pockets. SMITH, a Northern coward; RICHARDS, a Northern trickster; RYDER, a Northern fool; HAMILTON, a Southern ingrate; MERRIMAN, a Northern hypocrite; HACK hails from the land of pumpkin pies; BARBOUR LEWIS, a Northern bulb of a villain; WHITE, a Northern squirt; EATON, a Northern nincompoop; CHANDLER, a Northern straggler; BEAUMONT, a scurvy Northerner; HUNTER, a Northern trombone blower; WALDRAN, a Northern pettyfogger, and PIERCE, a Northern Radical, are all living in clover—got good, fat offices, sucking at the public teat, like so many chubby pigs. CURRY, a Northern man; WICKERSHAM, a Northern man; GREELEY, a Northern man; BOSWELL, a Northern man, and many other Northern men, are seeking office. Verily, the Philistines are upon us. The bees are swarming. It is locust season. The ants are crawling. There are surely enough Northern Radicals in office. The leeches have nearly sucked the life out of poor old Shelby county already. Is she to be befouled with accumulated filth? Is the credit of our county, which has hitherto been without stain, to become a scoff and a reproach? Shelby county is feeding enough of the scalawags. Elect a new brood of the plunderers, and there will be no security to our people—property will sink every day in valuo, and our county and city will soon become poor, dishonored bankrupts. We have seen enough of corruption and brazen profligacy. The creatures who are eating out the substance of the people, brought disgrace upon the State and bankruptcy upon the country, are busy at schemes to perpetuate power, and to increase their plunder. It remains to be seen whether men of intelligence and men of business, and men who pay taxes will aid in giving place to a new swarm of flies that will suck out their life's blood. Look at the tax book and see how much taxes these office-seeking vampires pay. They contribute nothing to the public revenue. It is true, a few of them pay a little taxes, but it is on property stolen from Southern men, or made out of the generous patronage of a people they would now degrade and rob of their liberties. These are the kind of Northern men we war upon—the men who claim rights that they would deny the tax payer.

RADICALISM is as blightning to the country as frost is to the fragile flower. It is worse than famine and pestilence. Business in every section of the country is blasted and stricken down. The scythe, the loom and the anvil are still; shops are shut up, and wharves are silent. The markets of the South having been closed by the madness of the Radical party, against the labor of that section, the men who are governed by a high sense of "dooty" and advanced moral "ideas" are being pinched by hunger. We learn that ABBOTT LAWRENCE, of Boston, recently stated "that about one hundred thousand people have been thrown out of work in Massachusetts alone, in Maine ten thousand, in Connecticut thirty thousand, in New Hampshire twenty thousand," and in Pennsylvania mills are being stripped of their hands, wages reduced, and employees, when kept, put upon half time. In New York the number of men and women who can get no work has been estimated as high as a quarter of a million. All this distress is the result of Jacobin rule. It is the natural and inevitable result of tomfoolery. A country threatened with anarchy and revolution, and which lives in continual strife and turmoil, can never be prosperous. Radicalism will perish with peace, and hence it keeps open the bleeding wounds of discord and strife. Kick the mischief makers from power and peace will soon brood over the land. Then there will be one brotherhood, a homogenous people speaking one tongue, worshipping at one altar, possessing one common interest, one common feeling and one destiny. The States of this Union must be joined together, not only by bayonets but they must be united in spirit and in truth. In their origin, sufferings and triumphs, they must recognize the bonds and pledges of one hope and one destiny. They must feel and act as if they felt that the peace and existence of one half the country was not a bubble to be sported with, a stake to be gambled for, or a spoil to be plundered or stolen. Whenever charity supplants hate and fanaticism, when all sections of the union and the people of every locality become in their mutual relations, natural, just and true, then indeed, and not till then, will we have a common country. But without these, all these,

"Alas poor country!
It cannot be called our country but our grave!"

THE first volume of the Digest of the Reported Decisions of the State of Tennessee, by our fellow citizen, J. B. HEISKELL, Esq., is just from the hands of the publishers, bound in good legal style, and the printing excellent. Mr. HEISKELL has in this work erected a monument to his legal abilities, learning and industry of which he may well be proud. The bar of Memphis may congratulate themselves that Mr. HEISKELL is one of them. This digest will, doubtless, supercede that of MEIGS', which fact is the highest encomium that can possibly be given to the author. When we consider the evident difficulties which the author must have encountered in compiling and writing, amid the troubles and engagements of a large practice, daily occupied in the courts, the completion of the first volume is indeed, under such circumstances, a great achievment of skill, labor and talent. With the accuracy of MEIGS, it combines in its arrangement, and the completeness of its details, every essential element of a work which will henceforth be relied on by the bar, and recognized by the courts of Tennessee.

Fortieth Congress---First Session.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, March 4.

The Chairman submitted a communication from Chief Justice Chase, relative to the rules adopted by the Senate, expressing dissent from the order taken by the Senate that the managers can be received on any act except as a Court of Impeachment, but he is willing, if necessary, to abide by their decision. Referred.

The House impeachment managers appeared at one o'clock, followed by the members of the House, who ranged themselves outside the bar. The Speaker was invited inside by Mr. Wade.

Mr. Bingham presented articles of impeachment, and said:

"Mr. President, the managers, on the part of the House of Representatives, by order of the House, are ready at the bar of the Senate to present articles of impeachment for the maintenance of the impeachment already preferred against Andrew Johnson, President of the United States."

Sergeant-at-arms—"Hear ye, hear ye; all persons are ordered to keep silence on pain of imprisonment, while the House of Representatives exhibit to the Senate articles of impeachment against Andrew Johnson, President of the United States."

Mr. Bingham then rose and read the articles of impeachment, the managers all standing with the exception of Mr. Stevens. At a quarter past two the reading was concluded, and the managers and the other members of the House retired.

Mr. Anthony offered a resolution that during the pendency of the trial no person shall be admitted save on tickets issued by the Sergeant at Arms daily, and not exceeding the number that can be accommodated with seats. That each Senator be entitled to four tickets, and each Representative two tickets, also the Chief Justice and each Judge two, press reporters sixty; the remainder to be distributed by the Sergeant at Arms, who is authorised to employ sufficient force for the preservation of order.

The Funding bill was then taken up, and Mr. Henderson addressed the Senate.

Mr. Howard, from the Select Committee, offered the following resolutions and orders:

Resolved, That, at one o'clock to-morrow, p.m., the Senate will proceed to consider the impeachment of Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, at which time the oath of affirmation is required by the rules of the Senate for impeachment trial, to be administered by Chief Justice of the United States, as presiding officer of the Senate, to each member of the Senate, and the Senate will receive at the same time messages, approved by the House, and that the Secretary of the Senate lay a copy of this resolution before the House; and it is also ordered that a copy of the "rules of procedure and practice in the Senate, while sitting on the trial of impeachment," be communicated by the Secretary to the House, and a copy thereof be delivered to each member; and it is also ordered that the different impeachment articles, presented to day, be printed.

After some discussion, Mr. Edmonds offered a substitute, which was rejected.

Mr. Pomeroy, from the same committee, presented an additional order, providing for a notice to Chief Justice Chase, requiring his attendance as presiding officer, and for the appointment of a Committee to conduct him to the chair, which was adopted. The Chair appointed Messrs. Pomeroy, Wilson and Buckalew. The Senate then adjourned.

HOUSE.

The House immediately proceeded with the consideration of the additional impeachment article offered yesterday by Jenckes—Higby, Lawrence of Ohio, and Jenckes supporting. Lawrence desired to offer a resolution directing managers of impeachment to present to the Senate the first of impeaching articles upon which they shall ask the Senate's judgment after proper voting, then let the remaining articles be presented. Bingham hoped this resolution would not be agreed upon. Speaker stated it was not before the House. Jenckes then moved the previous question on the adoption of his article. It charges unlawful intents and designs on the part of the President to assume and exercise control and command of the army of the United States without being bound by the laws establishing rules for the regulation and government of the land and naval forces of the United States. Hunter, under direction of Bingham, refused to second the previous question, and on his motion the articles were referred to managers, who at one o'clock, accompanied by the balance of the House, proceeded to the Senate. After laying before that body the impeachment resolution, they resumed their seats at a quarter past two. Chairman Dawes then reported that the committee, in due form, had presented to the Senate the impeachment articles, and had been informed by its presiding officer that the Senate would take action thereon, of which due notice would be given the House.

The Committee on Printing reported back Senate bills with recommendation that if pass, in relation to the promulgation of the laws of the United States Passed.

Mr. Dawes, from the Election Committee, called up the joint resolution reported by that Committee relative to R. R. Butler of Tennessee. The resolution provides that Butler be admitted on taking the oath to support the Constitution and the test oath, with the following exception: That I have neither sought or attempted to exercise the functions of any officer, under any authority, or pretended authority, in hostility to the United States.

The matter stands over for the present.

Mr. Beaman offered a resolution instructing the General of the Army to report the number of votes cast for and against the new Constitution in the State of Alabama. Carried.

The Committee on Ways and Means were instructed to enquire into the propriety of so amending the tariff laws as to impose a duty of —— cents per pound on imported ingots—pig and bar; on rolled copper, four cents; on pure copper, three cents; on copper, one cent.

Mr. Ward offered a resolution reciting the frauds of claim agents, and instructing the Committee on Military Affairs to report what further legislation is necessary for the better protection of soldiers and sailors. Adopted.

THE NATIONAL TELEGRAPH COMPANY

THE NATIONAL TELEGRAPH COMPANY is organized under the laws of the State of New York, and franchises conferred by an act of Congress, approved July 24, 1866.

President—GEORGE B. SENTER, of Cleveland, Ohio.
Vice President—ROBERT SQUIRES, of New York City.
Treasurer—FREDERICK PRENTICE, of New York City.
Secretary—GEORGE B. WALTER, of New York City.

A new enterprise, to be known as the National Telegraph Company, has been organized with valuable franchises conferred by a recent act of Congress for the purpose of establishing Trunk Lines of Telegraphs on all the principal railroads and mail routes in the United States. The Stock is to be issued upon the same principle as that of the Merchant's Union Express Company, which recently commenced operations. The design is to interest the entire business community in the enterprise. This is done, not so much to dispose of the stock as it is to secure the business of the country which the lines pass.

The capital is to be $10,000,000 in 100,000 shares of the par value of $100 per share, but the actual amount to be paid in cash is $35 per share, and this amount is to be paid as follows: One per cent. of the par at the time of subscribing, and no more until the entire capital has been subscribed, and then on calls to be made by the Board of Directors; instalments not to exceed five per cent. per month. When thirty-five per cent of the par value of the shares has been paid, certificates of stock will be issued. This will give the Company a paid up cash capital of $3,500,000, which will be sufficient to duplicate lines to all or nearly all the paying points reached by the present monopoly.

The Telegraph Lines of this Company will be constructed of the best materials and latest improvements, and let to the lowest responsible bidders.

The Stockholders of this Company cannot be sold out or TRANSFERRED to any other Company. The act of Congress under which this Company has been organised prohibits any transfer of the franchise granted.

The present Telegraph Companies throughout the country have been consolidated into one huge monopoly, and are now earning over SIX MILLIONS OF DOLLARS per year, or over one hundred per cent. on the actual cost of their lines, their present capital having been watered over ONE THOUSAND per cent.

THE NATIONAL TELEGRAPH COMPANY have a recognition from the United States Government of the importance of their enterprise, with a grant of the most valuable franchise ever conferred upon a telegraph company. No competing line has ever had the right now granted by Congress to this company to construct and operate lines over every RAILROAD and MAIL ROUTE in the United States. The position of this Company differs from that of any company ever before organized. The question of the RIGHT OF WAY IS FOREVER SETTLED.

A limited amount of the capital stock of this Company is allotted to this locality, and those having an opportunity, and subscribing, will be placed upon equal terms with its corporators, and will secure like interests in all franchises which have accrued, or may hereafter accrue to the Company from any and all sources.

Stock may now be subscribed in this Company at the Office of the Mercantile Agency, R. G. DUN & CO., 251 Main street, Memphis, Tenn.

S. B. WRIGHT,
mh5 General Agent for Memphis and Vicinity.

PERSONAL.—Mr. Wm. Porter, whose arm had to be amputated from the effects of a recent shot, was upon the streets yesterday, looking a little thin from the effects of his wound and from confinement.

A TRUTH.—We have it on the most unimpeachable evidence that George M. Greeley, the Radical candidate for register, has declared to his most intimate friends that in case he was not elected he was ready to leave town. That he had made all his arrangements for that purpose, and would certainly go if not elected.

COUNTY LINES.—It is most important that the lines between the city and the county should be fairly and squarely drawn. If this is not done, it will be a source of great trouble and annoyance to all. It should be done by the City Engineer and the County Surveyor, who should settle the matter by metes and bounds, as it can in no other way be done equitably.

ED. KIERNAN.—This well known and honorable Irishman aspires, and worthily too, to the honor of the mantle of the late lamented John C. Creighton, as magistrate of the Fifth Civil district. Ed. was the first man, we believe, in the field, and no man's claims are greater than his, for he has worked early and late, in season and out of season, and deserves at the hands of his Democratic friends all they can do for him.

THE WORSHAM.—The increasing patronage of this old-time house is sufficient evidence of its popularity, and the acceptable manner in which host Gallaway continues to cater to the comfort and pleasure of his numerous guests. To the traveling public, and those of our own citizens in quest of hotel quarters, we cheerfully recommend the Worsham as in every respect a first class house.

THOMPSON'S BENEFIT.—We are glad to hear that the citizens of Memphis have tendered to Manager Thompson, a complimentary benefit on Friday night. This is most deserved, because Mr. Thompson is beyond all doubt one of the most enterprising and most self sacrificing managers in the country. He has never spared expenses where the public pleasure was to be subserved, and he has done all that any one man could do to elevate the character of amusements in Memphis. Give him a full house.

NOTICE.—There will be a meeting to-night of delegates of the Fifteenth Civil District at McMahon's house, on Bickford street, Chelsea, near the Presbyterian brick Church, for the purpose of nominating a Democratic candidate for constable of said district.
M. D. L. STEWART,
Chairman County Executive Committee.

REGISTRATION.—The work at the Register's office yesterday amounted to the issuance of 478 certificates. The total number registered up to last night was 8,273. Over 1,000 persons in the city and from the country left unable to obtain certificates. The office was crowded to overflowing all day. Old men from the country remained for hours until they obtained their papers. Over half a dozen of lists containing seventy to one hundred names each, were refused certificates. After three o'clock no lists were read.

BURGLARY.—The residence of J. S. Menken, of Menken Bros., on Brinkley avenue, between the Raleigh road and Poplar street, was entered, yesterday morning, about half past three o'clock, by breaking a window in the rear of the house. The thieves succeeded in making off with about $300 worth of silver ware. It appears that the rogues, who were undoubtedly negroes, were disturbed in their operations, for in the hall they abandoned a part of their booty—a silver tea set and a cruit stand. On their way out, however, they visited the chicken roost, and fifteen innocent hens were instantly confiscated. Information was early this morning given to Sheriff Winters, and he detailed Mr. Deputy Sheriff Thomas Mahoney to attend to the matter, and it was not long before he found the right trail, and also the property buried under the bridge near Smith's grave yard on Winchester avenue, tied up in an old cotton handkerchief. The thieves had better look out or they will be caught also.

Leake, is connected with the revenue department of our city, but is at present in St. Louis.

At a meeting of the County Commissioners held on the 2d instant, the following was passed: "Ordered, That the County Clerk open his book at the place where the leaves are closed, so that all the records of the proceedings of this Board may be freely inspected by any citizen desiring to do so.

We understand that the city schools will open in Chelsea in a few days.

S. B. BEAUMONT.

He Has Fallen Back and Still Wallows in His Mire.

We have a disagreeable duty to perform this morning. We thought we had converted S. B. Beaumont from the error of his ways, but we were mistaken. We had thought that he, after having touched the lowest depths, like the plummet, which, with a quill in its end, is sunk in a deep sea sounding, comes up clear, but still bears the proof of the bottom—we say we thought that the waters which we had poured upon him would have cleansed him, and that he had given evidence that honesty henceforth was to be his polar star. But we were mistaken. You cannot turn the dog from his vomit, or the thief from his spoil, or the harlot from her avocation. Soon as the bending rod of correction is raised from correction of either, just so soon will the dog return to his vomit, the thief will seize his spoil, and the harlot bedizen and bedaub her person, to lay in wait for the foolish victim. For some time past the impression had gained ground among his most determined enemies that he was in the straight road to decency—that he had abandoned his Pratt, his Horton, his Stewart, his Stonebraker, and had placed himself in connection with men who did not at least deserve to wear the striped livery of the State. Again we have to say we were mistaken—like the hog, he has returned to his wallow—like the dog, he has again sought his vomit, and has stretched forth his protecting arms to shield from the embrace of justice one of the worst thieves now preying upon the people of the county. We would inform our readers that some time since an effort was made by Sheriff Winters to arrest the notorious Pratt and bring the miscreant back to justice. That in fact he had him arrested in Peoria, and had him under $5,000 bonds, but he was turned loose through the instance of Beaumont and Thomas, without the knowledge of Governor Brownlow, and this was the main reason for the dismissal of Secretary Thomas, who was acting as private secretary to the Governor. Our readers may have forgotten the facts of the present case.

A gentleman from Chicago, named J. B. Champlin, a former merchant of that city, came to Memphis on business, and soon after his arrival he was arrested about two o'clock in the morning, at the Worsham House, on a bogus requisition, and taken to Colonel Beaumont's office, where he was robbed, with pistols held to his head, of $3,300. In regard to this matter, the letters published below will throw much light upon the wormings of Beaumont, Pratt and company. Here is another case in which the documentary evidence which we give will rather startle the genial public. A man named Charles N. Boswell seduced a girl somewhere in Kentucky, and fled from thence to this city. Here he was arrested by detective Pratt and Beaumont, who turned him loose upon Boswell's giving up to Pratt $6,500, payable to Pratt in notes. As soon as this city became too hot for Pratt, and both he and Beaumont saw the penitentiary looming in the distance for them, he left, but he took the notes with him. In Bloomington, Illinois, he sold one of these notes for $3,000 to Henry B. Crammer, who has since come to this city, and compelled Beaumont to pay the amount on it. If Beaumont was not connected with this black mailing operation, why did he pay this note? The truth of it he was in Pratt's power, and to save himself he had to shield Pratt. Sheriff Winters, for a long time, has been working industriously to bring Pratt to justice in this city, but in this he has been foiled by Secretary Thomas, upon whom Beaumont has been operating all the time. We do not believe that Governor Brownlow understands the merits of the case, or he would have issued his requisition long ago. In fact, the requisition for Pratt was issued by Governor Brownlow, but through the influence of his private secretary, Thomas and Beaumont, Governor Oglesby, of Illinois, refused to issue his warrant, on the ground that Pratt would be killed if he was sent to Memphis. There was no danger of him being killed here, but there was great danger of he and Beaumont facing a penitentiary cell, had he ever been sent back. We subjoin a number of documents. The first it will be perceived is a letter from Mr. J. B. Champlin:

PEORIA, ILLINOIS, December 11, 1867.

Attorney General Wallace:

DEAR SIR: I presented the indictment to Governor Brownlow on Monday after leaving Memphis. He readily granted the requisition for Pratt and Stewart. I presented the requisition to Governor Oglesby, of Illinois, on Thursday of last week, who objected to issue his warrant for the arrest of Pratt and delivery to me until he had written to Governor Brownlow in regard to the matter. Governor Oglesby said that Pratt had instructed an attorney to call on him and state that Pratt was afraid to go to Memphis and be tried on the charge or "indictment" which I have made against him, fearing he would lose his life in Memphis for acts committed there during or since the war. The above statement made by Pratt I believe to be false, as I think his life perfectly safe in your city. What think you? I expect Governor Oglesby to issue his warrant during the week—soon as he hears from Governor Brownlow. I am exerting my best efforts to get him and return him to the jailor of your city.

The facts are: Pratt and Stewart robbed me of $3,300 dollars, and I have positive proof of the same, besides my own affidavit, which will be conclusive evidence to any jury to convict and send them to the Penitentiary for committing the crime on me. I want nothing but justice in the matter.

I consider our Governor here has done a very improper act in delaying the issue of his warrant for Pratt, who is still here under bonds. Mr. Bell is also here, who will return to Memphis with me to assist me in the delivery of the prisoner there. You may expect us there the last of this or first of next week.
Truly yours,
J. B. CHAMPLIN.

Pratt has tried to bribe the Sheriff here, and is doing his utmost to induce Governor Brownlow to recall his requisition for him. He has my money to defend himself with in order to evade justice, hence the delay.
J. B. C.

The second is also from the same gentleman, and addressed to the same, and will speak for itself:

PEORIA, December 12, 1867.

Attorney General Wallace:

DEAR SIR: I have just received the inclosed telegram from Governor Oglesby, of Springfield, Illinois, stating that Governor Brownlow had requested him to suspend action on the requisition until he could again communicate with him.

I hope and trust you will duly receive my letter mailed you yesterday, explaining the cause that has delayed me here since leaving your city.

I think it proper to state to you again that last week, when I presented Governor Brownlow's requisition to Governor Oglesby, of this State, for his warrant for the arrest of Pratt, he, Pratt, had sent an agent to Governor Oglesby, with a false statement from Pratt, saying he was fearful of his life to return to Memphis to be tried for robbery, in consequence of acts he committed during the war in that vicinity. Another statement or excuse he made to the Governor here was, that I did not intend to prosecute him upon the charge of robbery, but wished the requisition only as a means to get him back there into your city in order that we might take his life, for another charge against him, all of which is false in the extreme. I am very desirous, General, that you assist me in stating the facts of my case against Pratt to Governor Brownlow. I wish you to show both this and my former letter to Judge Hunter, and you and he, or either of you, write Governor Brownlow the facts in regard to Pratt and Stewart robbing me, in order that these robbers may be brought to justice according to the laws of the State of Tennessee. I think Sheriff Winters and the Attorney General are familiar with the facts of the case, and could give you any necessary information desired. I have Pratt here under $5000 bonds for his examination of the facts of the case. I shall endeavor to hold him until Governor Brownlow gets more evidence from Memphis in regard to the case, and advises the Governor of the State to issue his warrant for him. Will you be kind enough to acknowledge receipt of this, and what action you take in the matter in advising Governor Brownlow of the facts of the case.

I am very desirous of having these criminals brought to justice.

Please write me to Chicago, Illinois.
J. B. CHAMPLIN.

SPRINGFIELD, December 12, 1867.

J. B. CHAMPLIN, Funk's Hotel:

Governor Brownlow written me to suspend action on requisition for the present, and until he can again communicate with me.
R. J. OGLESBY.

Our next document comes from Mr. Champlin, and it also speaks for itself:

CHICAGO, December 13, 1867.

P. M. Winters, Sheriff:

SIR: I have written Attorney General Wallace the reason I have not yet returned to Memphis with Ball. I want you to call on Attorney General Wallace and read my letters explaining my reasons. I want you to use your influence to have Attorney General Wallace inform the Governor of Tennessee the facts of the case, in regard to Ball and Stewart robbing me in December, 1866. I trust you will use your utmost influence to inform Governor Brownlow that you believe my charge is true against Ball and Stewart, and assist me in bringing the said robbers to justice. Notice that Pratt makes his statement that he fears losing his life by going back to Memphis, and being tried for crimes committed there during the war. Sheriff, do the best you can for me in laying the facts of the case before the Governor of your State, immediately, in regard to Pratt's safety in your city—to be tried on the charge of robbery—and I will do the best I can to return these criminals to justice. I suppose Governor Brownlow has written to Memphis in order to get the facts of the case.
Truly yours,
J. B. CHAMPLIN,
Office 30, Smith & Nixon's Block, Chicago, Ill.

The next is a letter from the Sheriff of Peoria, addressed to Sheriff Winters, and is damning in the truths it tells:

SHERIFF'S OFFICE,
PEORIA, ILLINOIS, December 26, 1867.

P. M. Winters, Sheriff Shelby County, Tennessee:

DEAR SIR—Yours of the 21st is at hand. In regard to the notes you speak of, I never had them in my possession. Pratt gave them to a detective by the name of E. G Yowers, of this city, after he was arrested, one for $3,000, the other for $500 Yowers held them until Pratt's attorney obliged him to give them up. So they went into Pratt's possession again, and I have not seen them since. They were made payable direct to Pratt, and signed by Charles N. Boswell. Pratt has been discharged from his bond, and there has been no warrant issued on the requisition yet by the Governor of this State. There seems to be some trouble somewhere, but I know very little about the matter since Champlin came back.
Yours, etc.,
FRANK HITCHCOCK,
Sheriff Peoria county.

People of Memphis how do you like the picture? It is a rough one; but it is a true one. Will the white men of Memphis support A. P. Curry, who is Beaumont's right bower, and who if elected Sheriff, would endeavor to cover up all his stealings; will the colored men of Memphis support A. P. Curry who indorses Beaumont in arresting them and hiring them out at $10 a month? We think not.

FROM NASHVILLE.

The County Clerkship to Remain as It is Until 1871.

We have the most positive information from Nashville that the Legislature on Friday passed upon the bill dividing up the office of the County Clerk of Shelby county. It will be recollected that the Senate attached an amendment to the measure that it should not take effect until after the expiration of the term of the present clerk of the County Court, who goes out of office in 1870. This amendment, when it came up in the House, was almost unanimously adopted, the vote being 55 to 1. So much for the machinations of the thieves who wish to oust from his place the only safeguard the county has.

AN EXPOSURE.

How the Negro-Hiring Question was Settled.

We assert this morning, upon the authority of a prominent white Radical—one who stands as high priest at the altars of the Union Leagues, and who is beyond doubt the leader of the negroes in this city, that $50 was paid to the negroes whom Beaumont arrested and hired out, in order to induce them to stop the prosecution which Colonel Palmer was instructed to institute against Beaumont. This was told to a colored man named Cook, who was interested, and he most bitterly denounced the proceeding, and said that had he known it he would have been a party to no such rascality. Again, that previous to the meeting of the Convention, Beaumont went and personally said to all the delegates that if they would go for A. P. Curry, he would not oppose the rest of the nominations; but if this was not conceded he would beat the ticket. The delegates were whipped in, and he succeeded in nominating his "whipper-in," A. P. Curry. Again, we would ask, has not Elliott been put upon the police simply for his efforts to defeat Boswell?

A Card.

We publish the following card from M. B. Trezevant, and the accompanying notice from M. D. L. Stewart. In respect to the card of Mr. Trezevant, we have only to say that it is another evidence of the manliness of his character, and the probity of his principles. In the future, Mr. Trezevant will lose nothing by his manly action:

To the Conservative Public:

Having been satisfied upon an investigation of the existing franchise law, of my ineligibility to the office for which I have been nominated by the late Convention, by reason of my connection with the Southern cause, and waiving all personal considerations, I have deemed it due to you, that my name should be withdrawn from the ticket, in favor of some one who will suit you and can qualify under this law.

I therefore suggest that, as Colonel Stewart has called a meeting of the delegates from the Fifth and Fourteenth districts for Thursday evening, the delegates from the Thirteenth district also meet them at the same time and place, and select some candidate as indicated.

With many warm thanks to my friends of the convention who nominated me, and to the hosts who would have so heartily supported me, I remain, etc.
M. B. TREZEVANT.

NOTICE.—On account of the withdrawal of M. B. Trezevant as a candidate for clerk of the Municipal Court, as above stated, the calls for the assembling of delegates at the Exchange Building and Ferguson Hall, on Thursday evening, the 5th instant, are hereby modified so as to invite the conjoint assemblage of the delegates of the Fifth, Thirteenth and Fourteenth civil districts of Shelby county, at No. 310 Main street, on Thursday evening, at half past seven o'clock, when and where another candidate for Municipal Court Clerk may be nominated, as well as candidates for the several district offices to be filled at the ensuing election.

By order of the County Executive Committee.
M. D. L. STEWART, Chairman.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

A cough, a cold or a sore throat requires immediate attention and should be checked. If allowed to continue, irritation of the lungs, a permanent throat disease or consumption is often the result. Brown's Bronchial Troches, having a direct influence to the parts, give immediate relief. For bronchitis, asthma, catarrh, consumptive and throat diseases, Troches are used with always good success. Singers and public speakers use them to clear and strengthen the voice. Obtain only "Brown's Bronchial Troches," and do not take any of the worthless imitations that may be offered. Sold everywhere. eodim

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, for children teething, greatly facilitates the process of teething, by softening the gums, reducing all inflammation; will allay all pain and spasmodic action, and is sure to regulate the bowels. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and relief and health to your infants. We have put up and sold this article for years, and can say in confidence and truth of it what we have never been able to say of any other medicine—never has it failed in a single instance to affect a cure, when timely used. Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction by any one who used it. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operation, and speak in terms of commendation of its medical effects and medical virtues. We speak in this matter "what we know," after years of experience, and pledge our reputation for the fulfillment of what we here declare. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the syrup is administered. Full directions for using will accompany each bottle. Be sure and call for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," having the fac-simile of "Curtis & Perkins" on the outside wrapper. Weather clear and pleasant, with eleven and a half feet in the channel to Cairo. At St. Louis the river is stationary, with six feet scant to Cairo. The Ohio river is falling at Pittsburg, but rising from Wheeling to Evansville, with a swell out of the Kanawha and Cumberland rivers. Late advices report seven feet three inches in the canal, and 9½ feet on the bars in the lower Ohio. White river is on a stand, with six and a half feet to Duvall's Bluff. The Arkansas was rising slowly at Little Rock, on Tuesday, with twenty-seven inches in the channel. Cumberland river is rising, with six feet on Harpeth shoals.

IN PORT.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Business on the wharf yesterday was quite dull, with a small list of boats in port receiving and discharging.

The Board of Aldermen, as was anticipated, has dropped the wharf boat question, but we trust the Landing Committee will look into the wharf boat business before they act on it.

Captain John Langlois leaves for St. Louis today. He goes to the mountains this season. Captain Bill Woods is now chief clerk of the St. Patrick.

The Ozark is due from the Arkansas, and will be in port this evening.

The Virginia is due from the Ohio. She had a serious time at Owensboro, Kentucky, in a storm during Sunday night, butting the wharf boat and causing it to leak, the owners of which claimed $2,000 damages from the Virginia.

The Henry Ames, Captain Frank Hicks, arrived from New Orleans yesterday with a fair trip. She is receiving for a return trip, and leaves to-day at five p.m. for New Orleans and the bends. Captain T. L. Crawford and John Sullivan, two amiable and attentive gentlemen, have charge of the office.

The Kate Putnam has been raised.

Times are duller upon the river than ever before known. The hopes of permanent prosperity which sprang up at the close of the war have been disappointed. Business has dried up. Trade is dead. The tonnage on the river so far exceeds the freights as to produce general depression and a conflict of many interests. Steamboatmen are scarcely paid at all; wages have not been so low in years. Provisions are remarkably high. Insurance rates are enormous, and United States taxes are heavy beyond endurance. Steamboat interests are paralyzed for the present, and we cannot hope for better times very soon. The causes of this state of affairs are various. The financial troubles of the country and the prostration of the South, however, is the most comprehensive explanation that can be given in a few words. The South has ceased to be a market for the products of the Northwest. The people south of Memphis have determined to inaugurate a new system, and when carried into effect it will bring to them comfort and independence, if not every luxury. More corn will be planted this year than ever before, and less cotton perhaps. The people of the Northwest will have to look further for a market, but whether they will find it in the East or in Europe, their natural and cheapest outlet is down the Mississippi river. The corn of Illinois, Missouri, and neighboring States, with other products, must eventually seek the greatest markets of the world by way of New Orleans. Large contracts [illegible] by parties at [illegible] sissippi river [illegible] by this route to New York at low rates [illegible] through bills of lading being given [illegible] of this enterprise [illegible] the great valley [illegible] the West and South. It is of the utmost importance to these great sections that the navigation of the river should be improved from the Gulf to the Falls of St Anthony. [illegible] could be perfected [illegible]. The capacity of the Mississippi as a great thoroughfare for trade and travel remains [illegible] changed.

Since the day of its discovery by De Soto, while Congress has lavished out millions for the improvement of Eastern harbors, especially those of the extreme East, nothing scarcely has been done for the great Mississippi. The revenue derived by the Government from tonnage and license on Western rivers is far greater than from every harbor in the East.

The Porkopolis and St. Louis papers, we are glad to see, are howling about dull times and poor markets. They can expect no permanent relief until their Representatives in Congress secure sufficient appropriations from the Government to improve the Mississippi, from its mouth almost to its source.

The John Kilgour and Louisville past up for the Ohio yesterday. The former steamer added here three hundred bales of cotton.

The flag ship of the St. Louis and Vicksburg line, the Rubicon, passed up for St. Louis with two hundred and fifty tons of freight and sixty-five head of stock. The St. Louis packet company are carrying freight from St. Louis to Hickman for fifteen cents per hundred, and charging from twenty-five to thirty cents per hundred on Memphis freights. The freights that formerly passed through here over the Memphis and Charleston railroad are now being shipped by the Hickman route on account of the low tariff of rates.

The Countess, in command of Captain Zebria, arrived from Cairo yesterday with a good trip. She had on board one thousand sacks of corn. She leaves to-day at five p.m. for a return trip to Cairo and the bends. Mr. W. L. Ely, a genial and clever gentleman, presides at the desk.

The wreck of the Montgomery at Devil's Island, which sunk the Paragon, is such an ancient fixture that all the pilots over the course should be aware of its precise location. That wreck cost the Memphis packet company alone, last fall, over ten thousand dollars. It has sunk and damaged a number of steamboats, including, during two years past, the W. J. Lewis, Platte Valley, Belle Memphis, Jacobs, etc. The insurance companies' losses by the obstruction must foot up hundreds of thousands of dollars, and it is still there, with the impaled Paragon sticking on top of it, a shapeless mass and a total loss, with her valuable cargo.

The Silver Moon will be in port to day from Cincinnati and return on Friday. The Natoma, Capt. Bill Fields, came from St. Francis river with 140 bales of cotton. She returns to St. Francis river to-morrow at five p.m. The fine steamer Celeste leaves for the Arkansas river to day at five p.m. Captain Reese Pritchard commands, with Mr. Saylor, a competent clerk and clever gentleman in charge of the office. The Silver Spray is due from New Orleans bound for the Ohio. The Olive Branch is due from St. Louis en route to New Orleans. The Indiana will be up on Saturday bound for Louisville. The Liberty No. 2 is the regular Saturday White river mail packet. The Welcome, Captain Johnson, will leave the wharf to day at five p.m. for St Louis. The Mayflower is the regular Friday Evansville packet.

Captain John Russell, for ten years past afflicted with paralysis, died in Carondelet on Sunday, aged fifty-two. He was an old-time boatman on the Illinois, having commanded the Avalanche in 1846, and the Arcadia at a later period.

Local Inspectors Hiram Young and Joseph A. Armstrong, have made their report in the Harry Dean explosion case. They conclude the explosion was the result of Engineer Chamberlin's inattention to his duties in suffering the water to become too scant in the boiler, and suspend him for one year from the date of the occurrence, January 3, 1868.

NEW MEMPHIS THEATER.—A crowded house, composed almost exclusively of those from the country, witnessed the representation of the great spectacle of the "Crook" last evening. The performance in every detail was quite faultless, and was received with the most marked demonstrations of approval and delight. Aside from the dialogue, which it must be admitted is, in comparison, flat and insipid, the gorgeous scenery, ballet and mechanism, involving the bewildering transformations in the third and last acts, completely enraptured the repleted house. By special arrangements "Crook" trains will be run this evening from Corinth and Somerville, on the Memphis and Charleston Railroad, and from Grenada, on the Mississippi and Tennessee railroad, which will stop at all intermediate stations and convey those wishing to visit the Theater to the city and back the same evening, at excursion rates. We are also requested to state that the Memphis Transfer Company will have busses in readiness to convey all on the trains from the depot to the Theater, and back to the depot at the close of the performance. With these arrangements, there cannot fail to be a larger attendance, and we bespeak, as on last evening, the presence of throngs of country lads and lasses. On Friday evening Manager Thompson will take a benefit, and if he receives half what he deserves it will be a bumper.

WASHINGTON, March 1.

Some Radicals, and among them General Banks, declared to-day that the President cannot be convicted on the first and tenth articles. His accusers must, therefore, rely upon [illegible] others.

[illegible] Senators, in view of the approaching trial, are quite reticent, but some eight or ten during the past few weeks, have boldly denounced the President as a usurper, and say that he ought to be deposed. His counsel will protest against such men sitting as judges. Objection may be made to Wade, also, as he has direct interest in convicting him.

A Radical Senator to-night said they could count confidently on the majority in the Senate acting as a unit.

Jerry Black, Judge Curtis, of Boston, and William M. Evarts, of New York, will be among the President's counsel.

Hon. Jerry Black, who has just returned to the city, had a consultation with the President and his Cabinet last night. He is understood to have advised a prompt and determined course against Stanton.

WASHINGTON, March 2.—There were many speeches on impeachment to-day, and their chief merit was their brevity. A crowd gathered around Stevens to hear him read his closing remarks. This was followed by an amendment from Jencks, which was voted down. Butler offered a further article, based on the President's speeches in his tour in 1866, but it shared the same fate.

At 4 o'clock the speaker's hammer announced the hour to vote on the articles. Mr. Eldridge arose and asked as a question of privilege that a communication or protest against impeachment, signed by forty-five members of the House, should be read.

Under the operation of the rules passed last week to put impeachment through by gag rule the Speaker ruled Eldridge out of order. He then asked the unanimous consent of the House to have the communication read. This was objected to, as was also his motion for the privilege of printing it in the Globe.

The House then adopted by a party vote each article but the seventh, which was stricken out.

The Senate has been engaged all day in the discussion of rules to govern the trial of Johnson. The principal point discussed was a rule limiting the number of counsel to speak on either side, and several Radicals spoke in favor of granting unlimited time and number of speeches necessary. Messrs. Howard and Sumner were opposed to any thing that could delay the removal of the President a single day.

The McCardle case drew a crowd to the Supreme Court to-day. Every seat was occupied. Judge Black opened the case, denying the constitutionality of the reconstruction acts of Congress. After speaking an hour he gave way on account of indisposition, and the court adjourned. He will continue his argument to-morrow, when Judge Trumbull will follow on the opposition. Dudley Field will close the argument on behalf of McCardle. The opinion is generally entertained among the legal fraternity that the court will decide the reconstruction laws null and vaid.

The legal question involved in Stanton's removal has assumed a new phase since the exhibition of his commission. It was issued in February, 1862, and proves he was appointed by Lincoln during his first term of office, and was never afterward reappointed. Under the provisions of the tenure of office bill, had it been in force during Lincoln's administration, Stanton could have been removed at any time after April, 1865, or one month after the expiration of Lincoln's first term of office.

The continuance of Stanton in office under his commission from Lincoln, did not defeat the right to remove, and much less did his remaining in office by sufferance, and without any commission from President Johnson. This brings his case within the tenure of office bill. If that bill were retrospective, it would decide that the term of office for which Stanton was appointed ended in April, 1865, and this view will be taken by the counsel of President Johnson in the trial.

Leading Radicals oppose general legislation during his trial, and this will be made a pretext for hastening the action of the Senate. They even talk of requiring the President to answer a summons within two days. His counsel will ask for ten or twenty days.

But it is impossible to conjecture how the [illegible] trial will terminate. Democrats [illegible] [Cons]ervatives, whose opinions ordinarily [illegible] to weight, express grave apprehe[nsion as] to the result. They argue that [illegible]ess, its Radical press and its partisans, have indorsed impeachment, and this move only will save the party from ruin. But there are many others who contend the Senate can not fall so low as to convict on these frivolous charges.

Cold-Blooded Murder by a Highwayman.

The Fiend Still at Large.

We publish the following from the Nashville Banner, as the particulars of the killing of young Bicknell, one of the most cold blooded murders which has ever disgraced our State, and we hope that it will be long before its criminal annals are again burdened with such a crime:

The victim was John Bicknell, a son of Colonel Bicknell, of Columbia, who recently fled from East Tennessee to avoid the vindictive persecution visited upon him by his intensely loyal neighbors, and took up his residence in Columbia. Young Bicknell was about twenty-two years of age, and deservedly very much liked by all who knew him. He was agent for the sale of "Lee and his Generals," in Maury and the neighboring counties, and left home a few days since on a canvassing tour. Last Friday, about three o'clock, he was riding toward Lawrenceburg, when he was met by a man named Walker, who was proceeding along the road on foot, and said that he intended to visit Columbia on business. While Bicknell was talking to Walker, the latter suddenly drew a pistol and shot him twice through the head, killing him instantly. The murderer then pulled off his victim's boots, rifled his pocket book of its contents, mounted his horse and rode away. He was traced a few hours afterward to Columbia, where, it is said, he took several drinks at one of the saloons. What direction he took on leaving Columbia is not known, although it is supposed, from a remark which he made, that he came toward Nashville. At last accounts parties of citizens were searching for him through Maury and Williamson counties. The "Pale Faces," of which order young Bicknell was a member, have sworn that Walker, if caught, will meet with swift and terrible retribution.

The description of the murderer, given to the police of this city, was in the main correct. Our informant states, however, that the horse was a dark roan, with a star in his forehead, and that Walker wore an old blue cloth cloak and a pair of roughly made moccasins. His weight is said to be about one hundred and seventy-five pounds.

There can be no doubt that the sole object which prompted the horrible deed was young [Bick]nell's money, of which he had a considerable amount, derived from the sale of the [illegible] for which he was agent.
